Counselling and Mediation

Family Relationship Services for Carers (FRSC) provide Future Planning, Mediation and Counselling to assist families to:

- ◆ Make decisions about the future care arrangements for their family member with a disability.
- ◆ Resolve conflicts that may arise within the family in relation to the future care needs with the assistance of an accredited mediator.
- ◆ Discuss their concerns and issues to strengthen family relationships and the care of a family member with disability, through limited number of Counselling Sessions by experienced Counsellors in the field of disability

The Family Relationship Services for Carers program is funded by the Australian Government through the Department of Families, Housing, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs (FaHCSIA)

PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE

Planning for the Future for someone with a disability can be a difficult and complex issue for families. Often, people do not know where to start or what is available to assist them. We are able to offer advice, information and referral to assist families to start thinking and making plans for the future.

This includes:

- ◆ Information regarding future financial management, including powers of attorney, estate planning, different trusts and wills
- ◆ Conflict or disagreement associated with relationship breakdown, cultural or generational difficulties

COST

There is no cost for these services
