regional counselling services provide a range of counselling and support services to individuals and families of all ages to help them to improve their health and well-being.

Counselling sessions are undertaken in a supportive and safe environment in which confidentiality is always respected and upheld.

alcohol and drugs

Eastern Drug and Alcohol Service (EDAS) helps people in Maroondah, Manningham, and Yarra Ranges who are concerned about their own or others' alcohol or drug use.

EDAS services are based on a philosophy of harm minimisation, providing non-judgmental counselling, support and education to adults, young people and families.

EDAS also has a forensic service for people referred for counselling by the courts. More information about the range of services delivered by EDAS can be accessed at www.edas.org.au.

gambler's help

Gambler's Help Eastern (GHE) is a service for anyone experiencing harm from their own gambling. It is also available to the person's family, friends and community who may be also affected.

GHE offers individual, couple and family counselling, gambling-related financial counselling, support groups, self-help materials, community education and information sessions. Professional training and consultancy services are also available on request.

You set your own goals – we help you achieve them.

The GHE service is available at a number of sites across Eastern Metropolitan Melbourne and the Shire of Yarra Ranges. Evening services are available on some nights.
